

Staff Sergeant David Gheller

Integrated Avionics Specialist

Staff Sergeant David Gheller is an Integrated Avionics specialist for the F-22 Demonstration Team and a member of the 94th Fighter Squadron. As an avionics specialist, he is responsible for ensuring the aircraft's communication, navigation, RADAR, and electrical/environmental systems are operational. He represents the Air Combat Command, the United States Air Force, and the Department of Defense at more than air shows annually.

His mission is to ensure the demonstration team has a quality aircraft available to perform a safe demonstration so that millions of spectators can see the F-22 Raptors air superiority.

Staff Sergeant Gheller enlisted into the Air Force on December 6, 2011. He is from Pickerington, Ohio and graduated from Pickerington Central High School in 2006. He has worked on the F-22 for 9 years and deployed 3 times with the Raptor to include 2 deployments to undisclosed locations in Southwest Asia in support of Operation Inherent Resolve. In his free time he enjoys working on cars, going to the gym, and spending time with his family.
