

Senior Airman Erinn Bailey

Crew Chief

Senior Airman Erinn Bailey is an Assistant Dedicated Crew Chief for the F-22 Raptor Demonstration Team and a member of 94th Fighter Squadron. As an Assistant Dedicated Crew Chief, he specializes in the launch and recovery ground show procedure as well as calendar inspections on aircraft, engines, and subsystems. It's his duty to perform quality maintenance on the F-22, giving pilots the ability to safely display the capabilities of the Raptor to millions of spectators. Bailey has been a crew chief for the F-22 for 5 years who has also deployed in 2018.

Bailey enlisted in the Air Force on May 19, 2015. He was raised in Hubert, North Carolina, and a 2012 graduate of Swansboro High School. His interests included video games, the gym and sports.

Assignments

- January 2016 – Present, Assistant Dedicated Crew Chief, 1st Aircraft Maintenance Squadron, JBLE, Va.